The Life and Legacy of Alfred Charles Howard

Alfred Charles Howard was born on May 13, 1948, to the proud parents of Nels and Mary Howard in Berkeley California. Alfred departed this life on May 23, 2012.

Alfred grew up in Richmond, California and attended Richmond Public Schools. During high school, he attended the University of California Berkeley and graduated from Harry Ells High School in 1966.

Alfred accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was baptized at Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church of Richmond, California under the leadership of Pastor G.G. Griffin. He sang in the choir while attending Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church. He was also a member of the Local #10 Community Choir.

While singing in the choir as a youth, he noticed 15 year old Edith Jones in the congregation. He said many times, that after noticing Edith in her orange hat, he "got choked up, stopped singing, and fell in love at first sight." Soon after, they began dating and he escorted Edith to her senior ball. Alfred and Edith were united in holy matrimony on July 20, 1968. From this union three children were born, Nathan, Natalia and Natello.

After moving from Richmond to Newark, California, he rededicated his life to Christ and joined New Hope Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor T.P. Fields. While at New Hope, he sang in the choir, Male Chorus, Soul Revivals, and served on the Usher Board until his health prevented him from attending.

Alfred was employed as a Communication Technician at Pacific Bell and retired after 30 years of service.

Alfred enjoyed reading the dictionary, watching old western movies and watching sports, especially the San Francisco 49ers. He enjoyed playing dominoes with his brother-in-laws and telling jokes. He was a fun loving character who would often strike up conversations with perfect strangers, especially when in restaurants. He loved to sing and enjoyed singing to his grandchildren during Christmas time wearing his Santa hat. Alfred enjoyed all types of food and especially loved sweets. Affectionately known as "Papa", Alfred loved spending time with his grandchildren and would often ask them "who loves that baby" to which they replied "Papa".

Alfred was preceded in death by his father, Nels Howard. He leaves to cherish his life: His wife Edith of 43 years; mother, Mary Howard; son Nathan (Denetrice) Howard, daughter Natalia (Doug) Murray, and son Natello (Joni) Howard, all of Stockton, California; nine grandchildren, Neriah, Niah, Najé, Nicolas, Nehemiah, Nadeiah, Janae, Naomi-Victoriah, and Isaac; sister, Constance Britt; and special aunts, Dorothy Howard of Washington and Mary Parrish of San Jose, California; along with a host of sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, goddaughters, godsons, family, and friends.
